28th Annual Community Food Drive Saturday, October 28th

The North Branford Public Schools will once again facilitate the annual Community Food Drive and this year we will be working to stock the shelves of the local food pantries!

The 28th Annual North Branford Community Food Drive will be held on Saturday, October 28th from 9:00 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. Please remember to place your donations of non-perishable food items and/or personal hygiene items in a shopping bag by your mail box on Saturday, October 28th.

Major support for the drives comes from the students of North Branford Intermediate School and North Branford High School. Teams of students collect canned goods, pasta, and personal hygiene items from all segments of the community. You can assist by placing items out by your mailbox on the morning of October 28th.

We will also accept monetary contributions. Simply make a check payable to North Branford Food Drive/NBIS. Payments may be mailed to:

North Branford Intermediate School
Attention: Keith O'Rourke, Interim Principal
654 Foxon Road - North Branford, CT 06471

Supermarket gift cards are also an ideal way to contribute to the food drive.

Teams vie for the most items collected – receiving one point for every item received. Teams with the most points receive gift certificates from local businesses. A large number of North Branford Public School employees as well as parents and community-minded individuals assist at the drive.

The drive is spearheaded by North Branford teachers, administrators and students. In addition, the Public Works Department has volunteered their services to help deliver the food to the local food pantries.

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE . . .

With Governor Malloy and the Democrat majority's inability to produce a budget, North Branford, like so many of our communities, are facing crisis. Last year, our Republican Council Members did not support the spending and tax increases because we understand the need to find greater and smarter efficiencies so that our residents can afford to live in this great town and businesses can grow here. Difficult decisions lie ahead, and we ask the residents of North Branford to put the Republican Party candidates back in charge to make these tough decisions.

We want to serve you so that we can

- promote positive economic development through fiscal responsibility and proper town planning;
 - bring transparency to the budgeting process by prohibiting town or education spending without public hearings and voting; and
- implement and execute a town-wide plan for renovation and maintenance of town buildings, schools and land.

North Branford has heard enough talking these past two years, we will bring action!

State Representative Vincent Candelora

Connecticut Needs A Veto Override

Governor Malloy vetoed the bipartisan budget that was recently approved by the General Assembly. While his actions are not entirely unexpected, it does not make the reality of this any easier to digest. As a legislative leader that worked to obtain bipartisan support of this budget, I must say that this is extremely frustrating. But what's worse is that leaders on the town level have been waiting for a budget for months so that they could provide essential services.

Republican legislators carefully drafted this budget to erase a $3.5 billion deficit without any new taxes because our state is in desperate need of a new direction. Unfortunately, the governor does not seem to share our sense of urgency. The draconian spending cuts that will surely follow will be the result of his actions, and we must hold him accountable as he seems to think that Connecticut is better off this way, which shows how out of touch with reality he truly is. My colleagues and I intend to fight for our bipartisan budget, which fully funds local schools and municipalities by pushing our Democrat colleagues to override the governor's veto. This budget would have moved Connecticut in a more positive direction and I am hopeful that we still have a chance.

The governor's debilitating executive order will now go into effect this Sunday, October 1st and does not account for funding to most schools and municipalities, and continues to cripple those who need help the most like our seniors and individuals disabilities and their families.

We are nearly out of time and do not have time to go back-and-forth much longer engaging in a game of politics. My colleagues and I are still fighting and will continue to push for an override of the governor's veto.

I hope legislative leaders can be convinced to reconvene quickly to move Connecticut forward.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me regarding any state or local concerns at 800-842-1423 or vincent.candelora@housegop.ct.gov.

Our Flag and Anthem

What statement is made when, without more, US citizens demonstrate against our flag or anthem? I suggest that they demonstrate ignorance, contempt and disrespect for themselves. This is because our flag and anthem are symbols of the fundamental concept of our country - "We the People."

The uniqueness of our country - the new and revolutionary ideal created by our Declaration, Constitution and Bill of Rights, was government by, for and of the people, with liberty and justice for all. We, the people, were to govern ourselves. The concept of America was the rejection of the rule of monarchs and aristocrats. So, our flag and our anthem most certainly do not symbolize a ruling class. They do not stand for Clinton, Trump, Obama or Pelosi.

Our flag and anthem represent the People. They symbolize the freedom and liberty that compelled the end of slavery in our country more than 100 years before it ended in the Muslim world. They symbolize the concepts of equality built into our Declaration, Constitution and Bill of Rights that paved the way to universal suffrage. And they most certainly stand for the doctrines of equal rights and equal justice that call for the punishment of those who would betray these laws of our land.

The key to these thoughts is "without more." And the protesters seem incapable of giving us more. By some other symbol, deed or diction they must tell us more precisely what it is that they are protesting. Is it the rulers, the government actors who would subjugate us or act as an elite aristocracy in defiance of the rights declared in our Declaration, Constitution and Bill of Rights? But without more they merely protest the very symbol of their freedom, rights and liberty, a ludicrous act causing confusion, conflict and controversy.

Without more the protest of these symbols of our American ideals is necessarily a rejection of those ideals. If the protest is a plea for something else, what? Please tell us. If you're against the concept of government by and for the people, protest the flag and anthem. If it's something else you're against, please let us know what it is and maybe we'll join you.

North Branford Fire

*You and your family are fast asleep
when the smoke alarm sounds:
Do you know what to do?*

October 2017 -- Consider this scenario: its 2 o'clock in the morning. You and your family are fast asleep when you awaken to the smoke alarm sounding and the smell of smoke. What do you do? If you and your family don't have a plan in place, it could jeopardize your safety, or even prove deadly.

In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one to two minutes to escape safely from the time the smoke alarm sounds. That's why home escape planning is so critical in a fire situation. It ensures that everyone in the household knows how to use that small window of time wisely.

"Developing and practicing a home escape plan is like building muscle memory. That pre-planning is what everyone will draw upon to snap into action and escape as quickly as possible in the event of a fire."

This year's Fire Prevention Week theme, "Every Second Counts: Plan 2 Ways Out!" works to better educate the public about the critical importance of developing a home escape plan and practicing it. The North Branford Fire Department is working in coordination with the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), the official sponsor of the Fire Prevention Week for more than 90 years, to reinforce those potentially life-saving messages. Fire Prevention Week is October 8-14, 2017.

"Home escape planning is one of the most basic but fundamental elements of home fire safety, and can truly make the difference between life and death in a fire situation," said Lorraine Carli, NFPA's vice president of Outreach and Advocacy.

In support of Fire Prevention Week, North Branford Fire Department encourages all households to develop a plan together and practice it. A home escape plan includes working smoke alarms on every level of the home, in every bedroom, and near all sleeping areas. It also includes two ways out of every room, usually a door and a window, with a clear path to an outside meeting place (like a tree, light pole, or mailbox) that's a safe distance from the home.

NFPA and the North Branford Fire Department offer these additional tips and recommendations for developing and practicing a home escape plan:

Draw a map of your home with all members of your household, marking two exits from each room and a path to the outside from each exit.

Practice your home fire drill twice a year. Conduct one at night and one during the day with everyone in your home, and practice using different ways out.

Teach children how to escape on their own in case you can't help them. Make sure the number of your home is clearly marked and easy for the fire department to find.

Close doors behind you as you leave — this may slow the spread of smoke, heat, and fire.

Once you get outside, stay outside. Never go back inside a burning building.

For more information about Fire Prevention and what you can do and this year's Fire Prevention Week campaign, "Every Second Counts: Plan 2 Ways Out" and home escape planning, visit firepreventionweek.org.

Operation Save A Life

NEWS 8, Kidde and The Home Depot, has teamed up with Connecticut Fire Departments for Operation Save A Life, to promote fire safety.

Fire fatalities are often preventable through education and the use of working smoke detectors.

The Home Depot has donated Kidde-brand smoke detectors and CO alarms to the North Branford Fire Department.

NBFD has a limited supply of new battery operated Smoke detectors. If you don't have a working alarm, call or email us @ 203-484-6016 or deputyfiremarshal@townofnorthbranfordct.com

The Mission of the Shoreline Men Over Sixty is to create an opportunity for senior men along the CT shoreline to enjoy friendship, brotherhood, and a variety of interesting programs. Men from East Haven to Essex make up the bulk of the group’s membership.

Meetings take place on the first Friday of every month from October to June. There are no dues to join. You just attend one or more of the nine meetings during the year and enjoy a lunch prepared and served by the culinary students from Emmett O’Brien Tech School and listen to a forty-five minute talk. Talks could be on science, military, health, finance, to almost anything. Cost for each meeting is $12.

The first program for the 2017-2018 season will take place on Friday, October 6 from noon-1:30pm. It features a meal of meatloaf, mashed potatoes, carrots, gravy, and dessert.

Following the meal, there will be a presentation by Charlie Fischer, former Madison CT teacher and coach on the growth and emergence of the US as a world power.

All meetings are held at the First Congregational Church of Madison at 20 Meetinghouse Lane.

For more information, please call Hank Petroskey at 203-484-9002.

WIT & WISDOM

What I’m about to reveal now that the so called authorities are finally starting to, I’ve been writing of for at least 2 years. That global warming is all man made caused by carbon is miniscule in it’s importance. Don’t be fooled by the fossil fuel people delaying the change to photovoltaic energy creation while India, China Russia and Germany .particularly are far out distancing us in the race to the future.

Sixty Minutes last week decided it had better disclose the further down they go in the arctic the warmer the water temperature gets. A certain indication of volcanic eruptions. Possibly and probably a re-enactment of our planet millions, may be billions of years ago when they erupted creating land in the arctic and probably affecting the rest of the planet. Are we experiencing this all over again?

Not even those scientists claiming global warming was all man made can predict. They and the rest of us can only hope they stop their activity and go back to sleep again.

We are sitting by watching these and much of the rest of the world building and installing photo voltaic panels at a feverish pace except for California where Jerry Brown has disregarded the federal government and is negotiating with China for help in making CA the leader in self sufficiency. We had the lead in photovoltaic production, but our fossil fuel industry saw the treat to it’s monopoly and bought it up knowing even then, the early 70ties, that was where the future laid, but stymied every effort to promote green energy. Here we are with gas guzzling vehicles, oil heated homes and all the rest of our economy based on fossil fuels almost as antique as the horse age.

There are probably greater advances in the conversions of farm equipment to electrical propulsion than any other segment of our society. A search through the internet will amaze you with the number of electrical engineers converting everything from small lawn mowers to hugh tractors.

What surprised me were the ones converting old gas mowers and small tractors to electrical power. Once done you are virtually guaranteed a life-long mower or what ever facility was converted free of any further expense. With self generating generators incorporated in the rebuild even charging will be free.

Deere and manufacturers of hugh farm tractors, many in Europe are far ahead of our vehicles for road transportation. Some of these farm vehicles return automatically when finished with their designated task.

It is up to us to make these vehicles available to us by delaying our purchases of the present gas burners,

Alton Eliason

Atwater Memorial Library

Established in 2000 and based out of northeastern Connecticut, the CTPRT is a volunteer research group headed by Christine and Daniel Peer. The goal of the organization is to investigate and document paranormal phenomena to determine whether a residence and/or establishment are, in fact, haunted. They try to find natural causes for what may be perceived as paranormal activity before jumping to the conclusion that a place is haunted. They do this by using a scientific approach and various forms of equipment to capture evidence of any paranormal activity. In addition, as of March 2013, the Connecticut Paranormal Research Team became an official member of the Ghost Adventures Crew (as seen on the Travel Channel), allowing the team to be included in the Ghost Adventures network.

What is estate planning?

Believe it or not, you have an estate. In fact, nearly everyone does. Your estate is comprised of everything you own— your car, home, other real estate, checking and savings accounts, investments, life insurance, furniture, personal possessions. No matter how large or how modest, everyone has an estate and something in common—you can't take it with you when you die.

To ensure your wishes are carried out, you need to provide instructions stating who you want to receive something of yours, what you want them to receive, and when they are to receive it. You will, of course, want this to happen with the least amount paid in taxes, legal fees, and court costs.

Please join Mike Alimo at this workshop where you will learn :

Instructions for passing your values (religion, education, hard work, etc.) in addition to your valuables.

Instructions for your care if you become disabled before you die.

Naming a guardian and an inheritance manager for minor children.

Providing for family members with special needs without disrupting government benefits.

Providing for loved ones who might be irresponsible with money or who may need future protection from creditors or divorce.

Life insurance to provide for your family at your death; disability income insurance to replace your income if you cannot work due to illness or injury; long-term care insurance to help pay for your care in case of an extended illness or injury.

Providing for the transfer of your business at your retirement, disability, or death.

Minimizing taxes, court costs, and unnecessary legal fees.

Understanding your plan is an ongoing process, not a one-time event. Your plan should be reviewed and updated as your family and financial situations (and laws) change over your lifetime.

Let's Be "Frank"

Well brother, it's been a few issues since I sent you a substantial letter and this one will be no exception. After taking care of our sister, though I miss her terribly, I thought I would take a few months to settle down and get some much needed rest.

Unfortunately, I have battled several different health issues and I am writing this letter from a hospital bed (the paper must go out). Since Mary's illnesses and now mine, I must admit the medical profession and our healthcare is becoming a bigger joke. The good news is after talking to many doctors with various opinons, they all say I should be fine.

It's the various opinions that make a man with high blood pressure get more aggravated by the minute. I was good. I was bad. I was going home. I was not going home. I needed a procedure, I didn't need a procedure. I needed one type of medicine. I shouldn't take that type of medicine an yada yada yada.

By the time you read this letter, I should have a nice knew pacemaker. My heart is very good and strong but the electrical system is a bit screwed up. Pacemaker will make mejust as good as new.

It's funny as I am writing thsi letter about the craziness of the entire situation, the doctor just walked in and told me they will re-schedule the procedure for tomorrow because the hospital cannot get the anesthesia. So they have rescehduled me for four different days and I in the hopsital as insurance companies are taking a beating to pay for four days of nothing being done. I can't believe there is no anesthesia i the hospital. I wonder what Mr. Trump will have to say about that.

On the brighter side I have read about all these different diets and how much weight people lose with certain programs. I have surpassed the number in all the advertisements as I have gone on the "Mary died diet". This wake up call has helped me to lose 31 pounds in less than two months. Perhaps when the day comes that I finally kick the bucket I will die healthy.

The town politics still reaminin the scary category. Rumors and inuendos are destroying our town. When asked why I don't do a complete coverages on all the reidiculous issues coming up, I refuse to get involved. I know it's the town newspaper but I can't offer credibility to some of this craziness so I wil just remain silent.b

I would like to offer to my readers my apology if thi issue is not filled with its uusla brillaince. al findthat it is veery difficult to type with introvenous lines in my hands and doing this on a small screened laptop makes it even harder. God willing the last few months of setbacks will fall behind mewith this proceduer and I will move on.

Say hi to Mary, and I'll see you soon.

1. Introduction

[illegible][illegible]

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised walking program on the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged women. The study was a randomized, controlled trial. The subjects were 40 women, 40-55 years of age, who were sedentary and had no history of cardiovascular disease. They were randomly assigned to either a walking program or a control group. The walking program consisted of walking for 30 minutes, 3 times per week, at a pace of 3.0 miles per hour. The control group was instructed to continue with their sedentary lifestyle. The study was conducted over a 12-week period. The primary outcome measure was the change in the maximum heart rate (HR_{max}) during the walking program. The secondary outcome measures were the change in the maximum oxygen consumption (VO_{2max}), the maximum power output (P_{max}), and the maximum work output (W_{max}). The results of the study showed that the walking program had a significant effect on the HR_{max}, VO_{2max}, P_{max}, and W_{max} of the subjects. The HR_{max} increased from 145 to 155 beats per minute, the VO_{2max} increased from 20 to 25 ml/kg/min, the P_{max} increased from 150 to 200 watts, and the W_{max} increased from 1500 to 2000 joules. The control group showed no significant change in any of the outcome measures. The results of this study suggest that a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised walking program can improve the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged women.

Abstract

It is not clear from the text whether the authors are referring to the same study or a different one. The text is somewhat repetitive and unclear.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a 12-week training program on the physical fitness of 100 male and 100 female students. The study was conducted in a school in Ankara, Turkey. The students were divided into two groups: a control group and an experimental group. The experimental group participated in a 12-week training program, while the control group did not. The physical fitness of the students was measured at the beginning and at the end of the 12-week period. The results showed that the experimental group had significantly higher levels of physical fitness than the control group at the end of the 12-week period. The training program was effective in improving the physical fitness of the students.
